

FRAUD POLICY STATEMENT

Key Principles

Leading by example, Red Rock Partnership Ltd will:

- Introduce appropriate measures to minimise the risk of fraud;
- Adopt formal procedures to investigate fraud when it is suspected;
- Provide appropriate mechanisms for employees to voice their genuine concerns and protect those who do so;
- Deter employees from making malicious or unfounded accusations;
- Have no hesitation referring cases of suspected financial irregularity to the attention of the police;
- Work closely with the police and other appropriate external agencies to combat fraud;
- Support national and local initiatives against fraud.

Measures to Minimise the Risk of Fraud

In order to maintain Red Rock Partnership's high standards, procedures and controls have been established to provide an environment which will minimise the opportunity for fraud. These procedures and controls help us conduct its business in a manner beyond reproach. They establish the rules to which directors and employees must adhere and are supported, as necessary, by detailed procedure manuals which have been prepared for the key functions of Red Rock Partnership Ltd

It is the responsibility of Directors and Managers to operate internal systems to ensure that high standards are applied and brought to the attention of their employees. Procedures are operated throughout Red Rock Partnership to ensure:

- An adequate separation of duties (more than one employee is involved in key tasks);
- Proper authorisation procedures (transactions must be approved);

- Independent monitoring and checking of data and documentation (checks and balances).

Red Rock Partnership Ltd has a rigorous audit process which monitors compliance with regulations and undertakes a rolling programme of checks to detect, deter and prevent fraud and corruption. They work closely with Managers, monitoring their systems and procedures, to ensure that they are fully operated and remain appropriate.

Procedures when a Fraud is suspected:

Red Rock Partnership requires suspected irregularities to be referred to local Business Manager. All reported irregularities will be thoroughly investigated. The normal sequence of events, should an irregularity be suspected, will be as follows:

- If employees suspect an irregularity has occurred, or is likely to occur, they should normally report this to their line Manager who will in turn inform the appropriate Director (unless the concerns relate to that officer, in which case employees should have regard to the alternative mechanisms outlined below).
- Should preliminary investigations suggest the suspicion is reasonable, the <designated post> should be informed, without delay.
- If the suspicions stem from an audit, the Business Manager will inform the appropriate Director.
- Members of the public are encouraged to report any concerns to Vanessa Hickman based at our head office.
- Where further investigations indicate an offence may have occurred, the Business Manager will consult with the Directors. This will normally result in a decision to handle the matter according to Red Rock Partnership's Disciplinary Procedures and to involve the Police.
- Where financial impropriety is suspected, the Police will normally be informed.

Mechanisms for Employees to Voice Concerns

Employees are vital to the successful implementation of measures against fraud. Red Rock Partnership Ltd, therefore, encourages employees to report any concerns they have, without fear of being penalised. Normally, employees should raise such concerns with their line Managers, who have a responsibility to investigate and keep their Directors fully informed. However, other routes are available and employees are free to discuss the matter with any of the following:

- Their Director;
- The Managing Director;
- The Chief Executive

All concerns reported will be treated in confidence and fully investigated. If anonymity is requested, every effort will be made to ensure such confidentiality.

The Manager (or Director) to whom the concerns are expressed will take prompt action and the employee will be notified quickly of any action taken. Where action is not considered appropriate, the employee will also be given a prompt and thorough explanation of the reasons for this. In the event of a disagreement, the employee will be advised how to pursue the matter formally.

Employees should be aware that, if a suspicion is reported and results in a prosecution or disciplinary hearing, their involvement as a witness in those processes may be necessary, unless other substantial reliable evidence is available.

There is also a need to ensure that the investigative process is not misused. Therefore any abuse, such as raising unfounded or malicious allegations, may be dealt with as a disciplinary matter in itself. This should not deter employees from raising genuine concerns (even if subsequently unfounded but made with good intent), as, in so doing, they will be supported in every possible way.
